

PARIS

Cosmic Galerie

Paris is now home to a new space for contemporary art. Claudia Cargnel (previously director Geneva's Analix Forever), Frédéric Bugada, and Jean-Yves Hardy have joined forces to open Cosmic Galerie, a 1,000-square meter exhibition space with its own library and bar, in a restored 17th-century building in the Marais district. For the inaugural exhibition, Mat Collishaw's photos, videos, and mosaics take over the gallery's three levels. Upcoming programming includes a two-person show of Annika

3-D rendering of the gallery's space.

Larsson and Haluk Akakçe. Next February, Vanessa Beecroft will present her first film following the performance in Earl Peter Metternich's mansion in Vinseback, in which the German actress Hanna Schygulla as well as Beecroft's mother and sister play parts.